The Lessons

FIRST READING: Genesis 28:10-17

Reader            A Reading from the book of Genesis.

<sup>10</sup>Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup>He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. <sup>12</sup>And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. <sup>13</sup>And the LORD stood beside him and said, "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; <sup>14</sup>and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. <sup>15</sup>Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." <sup>16</sup>Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place—and I did not know it!" <sup>17</sup>And he was afraid, and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

PSALM: Psalm 103

- <sup>1</sup>Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and all that is within me, bless his holy Name.
- <sup>2</sup>Bless the LORD, O my soul, ***
and forget not all his benefits.
- <sup>3</sup>He forgives all your sins *
and heals all your infirmities;
- <sup>4</sup>He redeems your life from the grave ***
and crowns you with mercy and loving-kindness;
- <sup>5</sup>He satisfies you with good things, *
and your youth is renewed like an eagle's.
- <sup>6</sup>The LORD executes righteousness ***
and judgment for all who are oppressed.
- <sup>7</sup>He made his ways known to Moses *
and his works to the children of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup>The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, ***
slow to anger and of great kindness.
- <sup>9</sup>He will not always accuse us, *
nor will he keep his anger for ever.
- <sup>10</sup>He has not dealt with us according to our sins, ***
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.
- <sup>11</sup>For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is his mercy great upon those who fear him.
- <sup>12</sup>As far as the east is from the west, ***
so far has he removed our sins from us.
- <sup>13</sup>As a father cares for his children, *
so does the LORD care for those who fear him.

<sup>14</sup>For he himself knows whereof we are made; ***

he remembers that we are but dust.

<sup>15</sup>Our days are like the grass; *

we flourish like a flower of the field;

<sup>16</sup>When the wind goes over it, it is gone, ***

and its place shall know it no more.

<sup>17</sup>But the merciful goodness of the LORD endures for ever on those who fear him, *

and his righteousness on children's children;

<sup>18</sup>On those who keep his covenant ***

and remember his commandments and do them.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD has set his throne in heaven, *

and his kingship has dominion over all.

<sup>20</sup>Bless the LORD, you angels of his,
you mighty ones who do his bidding, ***

and hearken to the voice of his word.

<sup>21</sup>Bless the LORD, all you his hosts, *

you ministers of his who do his will.

in all places of his dominion; ***

bles the LORD, O my soul.

SECOND READING: Revelation 12:7-12

Reader            A Reading from the Revelation of John.

<sup>7</sup>War broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, <sup>8</sup>but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. <sup>9</sup>The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

<sup>10</sup>Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming,

”Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah,

for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down,
who accuses them day and night before our God.

<sup>11</sup>But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death.

<sup>12</sup>Rejoice then, you heavens
and those who dwell in them!

But woe to the earth and the sea,
for the devil has come down to you
with great wrath,
because he knows that his time is short!”

GOSPEL: John 1:47-51

Celebrant      ✝ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People          Glory to you, Lord Christ.

<sup>47</sup>When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!” <sup>48</sup>Nathanael asked him, “Where did you get to know me?” Jesus answered, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.” <sup>49</sup>Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!” <sup>50</sup>Jesus answered, “Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.” <sup>51</sup>And he said to him, “Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

Celebrant      The Gospel of the Lord.

People          Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Barbara Stewart

A period of meditative silence follows the Sermon.

THE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we say,

SANCTUS

Hymnal S-125

Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -
san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with Michael and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Music Notes from Ray Urwin

A few years ago I researched hymn texts, anthems and organ music about St. Michael, in preparation for these Sundays. I learned that there is an archangel Michael in Judaism and Islam as well as Christianity. I also learned that except for a few Christmas hymns and others, there are very few texts mentioning angels in general, and even fewer mentioning Michael. The texts we are singing today are not all old - the Offertory Hymn text was written only in 2000. But most of the Christian texts I found are 19th-century translations from the original Latin - inspired by the dramatic imagery in today's second reading of thousands of angels led by Michael in combat with dragons (think of the Prince fighting with the Maleficent/dragon in Sleeping Beauty!). These texts are typically Romantic - often hyperbolic, exaggerated and overly dramatic by today's standards, with now-antiquated grammar and vocabulary. Today we'll sing two of the better Michael and angel texts I found, using familiar tunes. The Offertory music is a striking setting of a Celtic text by American composer and arranger Alice Parker, commissioned by another St. Michael's for their patronal celebration. The Prelude piece is a rarely sung setting of a Michael text by the Slovenian composer Jakob Handl, also known as Gallus, the Latin word for "Rooster" (as is Handl in German)! His music is wide-ranging and eclectic, a rich blend of conservative and innovative styles with daring harmonic progressions, as you'll hear. His motet Ecce quomodo moritur justus was later used by Handel more than a century later in a funeral anthem for English royalty. The Communion music is an organ piece based on a plainsong hymn for Michael's feast day by Marcel Dupré, organist for many years at the famed St. Sulpice Church in Paris.

St Michael's Thursday Zoom Seminar with Sarah Rosenson on Creative Approaches to Joseph and his Brothers

Thursday Sep.29 we kicked off our second seminar led by Sarah Rosenson! The topic this time is Creative Approaches to Joseph and his Brothers.

In this interactive online discussion class, we will delve deeply into this fascinating story, exploring themes of sibling rivalry, the potential for individuals to grow into better people, the importance of forgiveness, and the concept of free will. Some of our discussions will use the techniques of bibliodrama, midrash, and looking at paintings of Biblical scenes. All of these approaches start with carefully reading the text, noting any questions that arise from the text, and using creativity and imagination to answer those questions

The seminar will run for 4 consecutive Thursdays, starting on Sep. 29, from 1:00 – 2:00 pm (pacific), via Zoom only. The meeting info is the same as for the Sunday Conversation:

Safety and Security Task Force

Houses of worship are meant to be places of shelter, reflection, and peace, where strangers are welcome. But the recent string of high-profile mass shootings in the U.S. is a reminder violence can happen anywhere. Saint Michael & All Angels is joining houses of worship across the country in taking precautionary steps by forming a Safety and Security Task Force led by the Rev. Dr. Barbara Stewart.

Over the summer months, meetings were held with the Orange County Intelligence Assessment Center (OCIAC) and the Orange County Sheriff's Office. A vulnerability assessment of St. Mike's campus focused on physical site security, access/entry control, and integration of existing security features with recommended procedural additions to improve overall security and preparedness.

Creating a space that is both safe and welcoming is possible! The assessment identified several options likely to lower St. Mike's general risk level. There are two dozen precautions we can take immediately at little to no cost. There are high-cost solutions too, but several non-profit security grant programs can be leveraged to cover funding. The parish task force will evaluate and prioritize the assessment recommendations.

If you have experience working on security and risk mitigation, please consider joining this task force. Progress updates will be shared with the parish over the coming months. Contact Barbara+ if you have questions or would like more information.

Rector Search | Consult with St. Wilfrid's

Senior Warden Kirt Smoot and Treasurer Jeff Eichinger from St. Wilfrid of York Episcopal Church in Huntington Beach joined a recent St Mike's Finance Commission to share their experience and expertise. St. Wilfrid's recently completed a successful rector search. Their new priest was installed in January 2022.

Here is food for thought for our Vestry from the discussion with Kirt and Jeff:

- Search Committee members met with the Vestry to present the strengths and weaknesses of short-listed candidates and to officially wrap up the Search Committee's phase of the process.
- Vestry members digested each candidate's application portfolio and viewed available online homilies.
- Candidates and their partners visited St. Wilfred's for a weekend and toured the area with an unbiased, non-parishioner real estate agent to learn about local housing options and costs.
- Wardens and Treasurer met with each candidate to review the parish budget in detail, providing full transparency into expenses vs. income.
- Extensive Vestry team interviews concluded with a celebration of the Eucharist including a homily.
- Vestry prioritized criteria from the parish profile and "graded" each candidate to reach a decision.
- St. Wilfrid's final agreement stipulates that the rector live within 30 minutes of the parish campus.

If you have questions about the rector search process please contact Senior Warden Louise Stover.
